I. VIETNAM NATIONAL UNIVERSITY HANOI (VNU)

Vietnam National University, Hanoi (VNU) is the first modern university ever established and one of the two national universities in Vietnam. VNU has undergone various stages of development: the University of Indochina established on 16 May 1906; Vietnam National University (November, 1945); the University of Hanoi (June, 1956). In December 1993, VNU was reorganized on the basis of amalgamating the University of Hanoi and other leading universities in Hanoi.

UNIVERSITY OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS, VNU

University of Economics and Business (UEB) was formerly known as the Political Economy Faculty of the University of Hanoi (1974-1995), the Political Economy Faculty of College of Social Sciences and Humanities, VNU (1995-1999) and the Economics Faculty of VNU (1999-03/2007).

Thirty years following its establishment, UEB has attained many notable achievements, contributing to the education and training of VNU, and the nation as a whole. Over time it has affirmed its position as a trusted and highly appreciated institution in Vietnamese society.

VISION

To become the research-based university ranking among the leading universities in the Asian region, in which some majors and specializations are accredited by reputed accreditation organizations in the world.

II.SPORT DAY AND SIGHTSEEING

OPTION1: VIETNAM MUSEUM OF ETHNOLOGY

The Vietnam Museum of Ethnology is a valuable centre for the exhibition and the preservation of cultural heritages of the 54 ethnic groups in Vietnam. To date, the Museum has collected 15,000 artefacts, 2,190 slides, 42,000 photographs, 237 audiotapes, 373 videotapes and 25 CD-ROMs. It is also a centre for ethnographic research employing many experts on the different ethnic groups. People come to the Museum just not to visit or entertain, but also to learn about these ethnic groups, their cultural diversity and the uniqueness of each group and region, as well as traditional values throughout the Vietnamese country.

OPTION 2: BAO SON PARADISE THEME PARK

Baoson Paradise, a paradise set in the land of Vietnam, is the most modern cultural tourism and entertainment park. It includes: Cultures Paradise; Ecological Paradise; Recreation Paradise; Art Paradise; Food & Beverages Paradise; Technical Paradise and Shops.

III. TOUR DAY

OPTION 1: HA NOI – HALONG BAY (QUANG NINH PROVINCE) – HA NOI

Ha Long Bay has twice been recognized by UNESCO as a World Natural Heritage Area for its exceptional scenic beauty and outstanding geological and geomorphic values. Most of the islands on Ha Long Bay are limestone and were formed over 500 million years ago, and are massed in the southeast and southwest. The schist islands scattered in the southeast have an average height of between 50-200m, and have a rich covering of flora. Within the islands of the Bay there are hundreds of beautiful caves of different shapes and sizes, including many famous names such as Thien Cung, Dau Go, Sung Sot, Tam Cung and Bo Nau. Some of them are archaeological sites retaining tangible archaeological evidence, such as Dau Go, Bo Nau, Sung Sot, Soi Nhu, Tien Long, Me Cung, and Trinh Nu caves.

OPTION 2: HA NOI – BAT TRANG POTTERY VILLAGE – HA NOI

Bat Trang Pottery Village is located in the south east of Hanoi. This is a pottery village with a half-millenary historic development. Some decades recently, the vitality of this village is still blown up by the thousands of pottery-kiln on fire day and night.
